

Act II – Pg. 53

WILBUR (after a beat, still looking ahead). No, I'm not. (Another beat.) Whatever will happen, will happen. (He gains courage.) I may not live as long as I'd like, but I've lived very well. A good life is much more important than just having lived very well. A good life is much more important than just having a long life. So starting now, I'm going to stop worrying about myself. There are more important things than just thinking about yourself all the time. Like you, Templeton. You didn't even notice that Charlotte has made an egg sac.
